

OGA 2019 Annual Conference Sponsorship Opportunities

“Sex, Drugs & Walk ‘n’ Roll: Promoting Healthy Aging for All”

Friday, October 25th, 2019, 8:30 am – 3:30 pm

Keizer Community Center in Keizer, Oregon

About the Program: This year’s conference will highlight a holistic approach to health and well-being in later life for all, including older adults with varying ethnic and cultural backgrounds. Keynote speakers include Dr. Alethea Fleming, ND, of Vital Aging Clinic, Anacortes, WA, who will present on naturopathic approaches to healthy aging, and Rev. Dr. Alice Scannell, gerontologist, educator and Episcopal priest, who will discuss her recent book, Radical Resilience. Additional speakers will address a variety of issues important for older adults, including sex and aging in care communities, substance use and abuse in later life, therapeutic benefits of music for older adults, food as medicine and physical activity promotion for all.

Why Sponsor: Be part of a growing association and conference that will put your organization front and center to our state’s leaders and experts serving older adults and their families. Your support will make professional development and exchange available to those working in health care, senior centers, long-term care communities, community-based programs, retirement communities, public service agencies, recreational programs, advocacy organizations, academia, private practice, and businesses serving older adults.

Sponsors and exhibitors will be listed in OGA Annual Conference materials once we receive your completed agreement. Please see the next page for Sponsor/Exhibitor Opportunities!
